

Fire in Parochial School Kills Scores; More Than 90 Children and Teachers Injured

[TRIBUNE Aerial Photo]

Smoke soaring from Our Lady of the Angels school, 909 N. Avers av., where at least four score died Monday in fire, from inhalation of dense smoke, or from injuries suffered in leaping from building.

Pupils and nuns in first floor classrooms escaped. Rapid spread of flames and smoke trapped frantic youngsters in second floor rooms. More than 90 were injured.